The athletes at Richmond College and at the Blues' Armory are now busily engaged perfecting plans for the dual indoor meet which will be held to the state of the armory on March 24. Entry blanks are now being printed, and as soon as they come from the press may soon as they come from the press may included the secured from Sergeant E. W. Gates, chairman of the registration committee, at the Blues' Armory, any time after 7 o'clock in the evening.

Coach OI a Richardson, of the Blues, and Coach Hagaman, of Richmond College, are both working to capture the meet. The men will be worked hard to the college to develop a fast miler, as the Blues have several men who are the Blues have several men who are good over this distance. In the other track events it is believed that the two are about evenly matched.

The relay races will undoubtedly be the features of the erelay races will be the features of the erelay races will be the features of the erelay races will be the grammar schools of Richmond. Instructor Jones, who is looking after the midgets, promises some good sport out of the little fellows.

Meeting Attracts Big Crowd.

SHAFTS FROM SPORTLAND By GUS MALBERT.

It was a little cold for work yes-terday. Not a soul was at the park in the morning, despite reports to the contrary.

In the afternoon Sullivan was out with one or two of his hopefuls, including Satseino.

Weather is just beginning to break in the camps. It's a sure bet that when Richmond is not having its usual good weather every other spot on earth is
